

Walking the Catwalk - SOLUTION

One thing about cats - they love to mark their turf. It seems some particularly historical markings have been left behind from the cats with the big bucks. Get off your behind, take a look around, and figure out what they were trying to tell us!

The dots represent benches ("get off your behind") and the clues reference words found in the bench dedications (which are all a little silly)

- It'll be happy (4) BUTT
- Locations to get brought down to earth by fast things (9) MOUNTAINS
- Don't drink it - ___ it! (4) LOVE
- I don't think that's a word... (8) ZEPULANT
- Adjective in opening quote of children's book (6) LITTLE
- Forever enshrined with a spirit, a Flintstone, and Tom's (obese) nemesis (7) POPTART
- I'm not sure that's how math works, but apparently it equals serenity (8) KINDNESS
